

CONSTITUTION of the
ASSOCIATION OF IBERIAN AND LATIN AMERICAN
STUDIES OF AUSTRALASIA
(AILASA)

As amended on 10/7/99.

Note: Amendments are indicated in [square brackets].

1. NAME

1.1 There shall be an Association of Iberian and Latin American Studies of Australasia, also to be known by the acronym AILASA.

2. ORGANISATION

2.1 Affiliation will be by individual or institutional membership.

3. OBJECTIVES

3.1 The objectives of AILASA shall be:

3.1.1 to promote research and teaching in Iberian and Latin American Studies in Australasia in general and in member institutions in particular.

3.1.2 to promote the professional development of its members through the production of a Newsletter, the sponsorship and organisation of conferences, seminars, workshops and other mechanisms which encourage mutual learning and intellectual exchange.

3.1.3 to promote public awareness of and interest in the Iberian Peninsula and Latin America within Australasia.

3.1.4 to stimulate and encourage interchange between Australasia and the Iberian Peninsula and Latin America and greater exchange between Latin America and other Pacific Rim countries.

3.1.5 to cooperate with institutions from the public and private sectors in the pursuit of these objectives and to seek and administer resources for this end.

3.1.6 to coordinate and rationalise available resources among member institutions through the interchange of students, teachers and resources, both human and material.

3.1.7 to organise a Biennial conference.

4. MEMBERSHIP

4.1 There are two categories of membership: Full and Associate.

4.1.1 Full Membership can be either individual (including tertiary students) or corporate (e.g. departments, centres, institutes). Full members must be engaged in activities of teaching and/or research.

4.1.2 Associate Membership is open to all those who are engaged in the promotion and/or development of relations with Iberia and Latin America. Associate membership can be either individual or corporate.

4.2 Membership of AILASA shall be dependent upon the payment of a membership fee which shall be payable by January 31 each year.

4.3 The membership fee shall be determined by the Biennial General Meeting in the light of the recommendations of the Coordinating Committee.

4.4 Membership Rights

4.4.1 Full Corporate Member: each full corporate member shall nominate one person who shall enjoy the rights of full membership.

4.4.2 Associate Member: shall enjoy all the rights of a full member except for the right to nominate and or to be nominated for the Coordinating Committee and to vote (see Section 9).

4.4.3 Associate Corporate Member: each associate corporate member shall nominate one person who shall enjoy the same rights as an Associate Member.

5. COORDINATING COMMITTEE

5.1 The affairs of AILASA shall be managed by a Coordinating Committee of three full members from the same State/Region, who will form the Executive Committee, and seven full members to be elected from the remaining States/Regions of Australasia.

[Nominations for] the Coordinating Committee should reflect [the need to achieve], wherever possible, a balance between regional and gender representation, Iberianists and Latin Americanists and between the various areas of specialisation represented by the membership.

[5.1.1 Gender balance in all AILASA structures is AILASA policy.]

5.2 Students who are financial full members of AILASA shall be eligible as such to nominate and be nominated.

5.3 The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the administration of the affairs of AILASA on a day-to-day basis.

5.4 Policy decisions will require the approval of a majority of the Coordinating Committee by voting at a meeting or by postal ballot.

5.5 The Coordinating Committee shall meet as necessary. Routine business may be conducted by phone, fax or e-mail.

5.6 The Coordinating Committee shall have the power to make any regulations to put this Constitution into effect.

5.7 A member of the Coordinating Committee shall cease to be such if:

5.7.1 s/he submits his or her resignation in writing to the Coordinating Committee, in which case the Committee shall inform the next meeting of the Biennial General Meeting.

5.7.2 s/he ceases to be a financial member of AILASA.

5.7.3 in the case of a corporate member, the institution s/he represents ceases to be a financial member of AILASA.

5.7.4 s/he is no longer able to function in a representative capacity (i.e., protracted illness, extended absence from Australasia, etc.).

5.8 The Coordinating Committee shall have the power to fill any vacancy occurring on the Committee between the Biennial General Meetings provided that such action is ratified by the Coordinating Committee.

5.9 The Coordinating Committee shall have the power to appoint from time to time such officers and sub-committees as it deems necessary. The duties of such officers and sub-committees shall be defined by the Committee to whom the aforesaid shall be responsible.
